JONAS DAINAUSKAS

The visa files of the U. S. Embassy, Paris, France, reflect that JONAS DAINAUSKAS, born January 21, 1904, at Kaunas, Lithuania, residing at 4 Cite Joli, Paris 11, France, has applied for an immigration visa to enter the United States.

The visa file reflects that DAINAUSKAS entered France from Poland in January 1957. He held Polish passport No. CA 0014469.

His file reflects the following residences:

7/44 - 8/44	Refugee from Lithuanian border with a group of refugees
8/44 - 9/44	Stralsund German Air Force (Unity) Regiment Barracks and Boya/Weser (south of Bremen) German Air Force element as "Kampfhelder"
10/44 - 2/15/45	In Polish prison at Poznan, Poland, as politically unreliable for Polish Communists
2/45 - 12/2/45	In USSR concentration camp at Poznan as being politically unreliable
12/45 - 2/51	Various towns in Poland
2/51 - 1/57	Poznan, ul Stogowaka 26/1

He indicated that he escaped from the Russian concentration camp at Poznan and in Poland was able to disguise his true nationality and integrate himself into the Polish community. He obtained a position in the Agrarian Reform Bureau as a clerk. He joined the Polish Workers Party (Polish Communist Party) in December 1947 for fear of deportation to Russia. He was a member until December 1956.

His parents were MATAI and PHILIPINA DAINAUSKAS. His occupation was listed as juriste-economist. He indicated that he has a sister and brother in Lithuania.
